Lead by Danish Elite Coaches

ABOUT THE DANISH COACHES:

The coaches work at Soccer Academy Hjallesø in Denmark. The coaches have been conducting camps in Florida for over 14 years with the sole purpose of assisting players with mental, technical, and tactical development.

- The coaches are FIFA A-licensed coaches, and members of the Danish Soccer Association (DBU) staff as consultants and instructors
- The coaches have been working as coaches in clubs on the top professional level.
- The coaches have worked in top clubs, such as, Schalke 04, Borussia München Gladbach, and Dortmund, in Germany; FC Barcelona and Real Madrid in Spain; and Liverpool and Blackburn in England to inspire themselves to become the best coaches.
- Their daily work with the best soccer players in Denmark at the Academy has resulted in Academy players participating in 6 World Cups. Some of the players who have been through the Academy play at the top level in Europe and are national players: Christian Eriksen (Tottenham), Daniel Hoegh (Rapid Vienna), Rasmus Falck (FC Copenhagen) Katrine Veje (Seattle Reign FC).
- The coaches have also played on the highest level in Denmark as youth players and as senior players in the first division in Denmark.

COACH LINDHARTH:

Worked for the soccer club Naesby BK as youth coach for the U15 and U17 boys. Won the youth tournament in Denmark for the U15, and has been successful in developing players who have become Youth national players and players that moved on to the highest level in Denmark and Europe.

COACH THOMSEN:

Worked for 2 years as a successful coach for the Danish National Women's team. Coach Thomsen has been successful as a coach for both women, men and especially youth players.

COACH JENSEN:

For 5 years, Coach Jensen has been responsible for the youth developing program in a top level Danish soccer club. Allan has been successful as a coach for both men and women, and especially youth players who have played on the highest level in Denmark and Europe and players who have played on the Danish National Youth teams.
